DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention

Claim 2, recites that " hardness-resistant object ... cannot be limited by shaping and fixing"

It makes the claim indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Boehm et al.

With regard to claim 1, Boehm et al (US 5,749,656) disclose a safety plug featuring to plant a heat-resistant and hardness-resistant object (42) , as PBT (col. 3, lines 21-27), in between two pins (12, 14 of the safety plug; and to form an outer body (44) for wrapping around rear sections of the two pins and a certain period of an electrical cord (20, 18) with PVC material; therefore movement and deformation and a short circuit of the pins can be avoided while in a state of high temperature.

With regard to claim 2, Boehm et al disclose that the heat-resistant and hardness-resistant object can be made of the material with fixing, isolating, heat-resistance, including heat-resistant plastic material

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2833

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harrel in view of Boehm.

With regard to claim 1, Harrel (US 4,854,894) disclose a safety plug featuring to plant a heat-resistant and hardness-resistant object (20), between two pins (28) of the safety plug; and to form an outer body (22) for wrapping around rear sections of the two pins and a certain period of an electrical cord (20, 18) with PVC material;

Harrel does not disclose that the hardness-resistant object made of PBT

Boehm et al disclose that the hardness-resistant object made of PBT.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the hardness-resistant object made of PBT, as taught by Boehm et al, to improve the thermoresistance of the plug.
